The Current Analysis Telecom Services - Asia module encompasses coverage of fixed network services within key Asian markets, specifically: Pan-Asian, China/Hong Kong, India, Malaysia, and Singapore.

The analytical content focuses on the following areas:

Data Business Network Services

– Covers the ATM, dedicated internet access, DSL, Frame Relay, Ethernet, and IP-VPN markets.

Managed Business Services – Covers products and services used to deploy applications over IP infrastructure, managed security to protect an end user's online assets, the non-traditional emerging providers of managed voice, and solutions that facilitate content deployment over IP infrastructure such as hosting and managed storage.
